

I do not want Indiana's Privacy Law altered. It is very effective and restores control over my private life to me. It was commonplace to receive at least 5-6 annoying and unwanted calls on any given day. Now I receive less than 1 a day. Please listen to the private citizen and not the selfish interests of lobbying groups. Thank you.